

LYKING VALLEY COURIER.

VOLUME 2. NO. 52

WEST LIBERTY, MORGAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1912.

WHOLE NUMBER 104

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY

Circuit Court: On Fourth Monday in June, and Third Monday in March and November. J. B. Hannah, Judge; John M. Waugh, Com'th Attorney; R. M. Oakley, Clerk; G. W. Phillips, Trustee of Jury Fund; S. R. Collier, Master Commissioner, J. D. Lykins, Deputy Master Com'r.

Court of Common Pleas: On Second Monday in each Month.

Quarterly Court: On Tuesday after Second Monday in each month.

Fiscal Court: On Wednesday after Fourth Monday in April and October.

I. C. Ferguson, Presiding Judge.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

First District—W. G. Short, 1st Monday in each month.

Second District—S. S. Dennis, Tuesday after 1st Monday in each month.

Third District—Eli W. Day, Wednesday after 1st Monday in each month.

Fourth District—Charles Prater, Friday after 1st Monday in each month.

Fifth District—Frank Kennard, Wednesday after 2nd Monday in each month.

Sixth District—J. E. Lewis, Friday after 2nd Monday in each month.

Seventh District—A. F. Blevins, Thursday after 2nd Monday in each month.

Eighth District—Franklin Walker, Thursday after 1st Monday in each month.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Judge—I. C. Ferguson.

Attorney—J. P. Haney.

Sheriff—H. B. Brown.

Treasurer—W. M. Gardner.

Clerk—J. H. Sebastian.

Supt. Schools—T. M. Barker.

Jailor—H. C. Combs.

Assessor—Whitt Kempin.

Coroner—C. F. Lykins.

Surveyor—M. P. Turner.

Fish and Game Warden—W. C. Fugett.

Deputy G. W., Jno M. Perry.

West Liberty Police Court—First Wednesday in each month, N. P. Womack, Judge.

The County Board of Education for Morgan county, holds its regular meeting the 2nd Monday in each month.

J. P. HANEY,
County Attorney,
GENERAL PRACTICE,
OFFICE IN COURT-HOUSE.
West Liberty, Ky.

W. M. GARDNER,
LAWYER,
WEST LIBERTY, KY.
Office in Commercial Bank Building

RYLAND C. MUSICK,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
JACKSON, KY.

State and Federal practice. Commercial and civil litigation carefully handled.

COTTE & HOVERMALE,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
WEST LIBERTY, KY.

S. M. NICKELL,
C. L. C. & C. CO.,
WYERS,
WEST LIBERTY, KY.
COURT HOUSE

Farmer's Corner.

Did you ever stop to think that while the farmer sleeps his corn and wheat and oats and grass are growing? That his calves and pigs and colts are taking on weight and ripening for the butcher or for the market? Did you ever stop to give this question a serious thought? If you have not, take an hour off and do a little earnest thinking along these lines. If a day laborer, a clerk or a book-keeper gets sick or goes on a vacation his income stops then and there while his expenses increase all the while. Not so with the farmer. His income goes on while he is sick or while he takes a week off for recreation.

Young men, think about these things before leaving the farm.

In England, France and Germany there are farms which have been in cultivation for a thousand years and yet their average production per acre is more than twice that of the same crop in the United States. What's the lesson? Conserve and add to the fertility of the soil by the application of manure, rotation of crop and scientific cultivation. It is easier and more sensible to preserve the fertility of a farm than to wear it out and the undertake the task of rebuilding it.

Some farmers wail because the robins and catbirds eat cherries. Now I have noticed that with all their eating the birds only eat a small share. I have several cherry trees, and let the robins eat all they want. If a share of my cherries will coax them to build and rear their young in my orchards, acting as bug police meanwhile, I am the winner.

Watch the plow horse's shoulders this hot weather. A salt water bath after turning out in the evening will keep them tough and prevent soreness. Also see that collars fit well and are kept clean. An animal will do much better work in harness that fits comfortable than it will in ill fitting, broken or disarranged harness.

Make your garden planting smaller and plant more frequently—every week or ten days; this will produce young vegetables that are more tender, juicy and sweet than where large plantings are made and part of the vegetables are allowed to become big, tough and strong flavored.

If you feel all run down and despondent, if you are not sleeping well, if you feel as if life was a real burden and that you must consult a doctor, just think it over. Perhaps all you need is to raise your bedroom window at night.—Farm Journal.

Saphead, living in the city, wrote to a farmer stating that having arranged to spend summer in the country, he desired to purchase an ice-cream cow.

The farmer replied by next mail, saying that he had a nice cream cow that would just suit him.—Ex.

Cleanliness is next to Godliness and ahead of it with the milk inspector.

Be sure there are no lice on the young stock when they are turned to pasture.

Desire not the day of the one horse farmer, for it leads to a two horse team.

Mrs. Lela Love, wife of Wiley Love, a farmer living near Covington, Ga., says: "I have taken Foley's Kidney Pills and find them to be all you claim them. They give me almost instant relief from my kidneys were sluggish and inactive. I carefully recommend them to all sufferers from troubles." Foley's Kidney Pills are carefully made and compounded at home by Dr. S. M. Nickell.

"I'm tired of laying," complained the hen. "And I'm tired of being about them," chimed in the rooster.

Willis Carter, who has been at work in Illinois for several weeks, has returned home.

Clark Gets State.

Kentucky Instructs for Her Son.

Other News of Convention.

The Democratic State convention at Louisville on the 22, elected Gov. Jas. B. McCreary chairman over congressman Ollie James, instructed for Champ Clark for President and harmonized all factions by electing eight delegates at large to the Baltimore convention.

The convention endorsed the administration of Gov. McCreary, endorsed the acts of Kentucky's Democratic Congressmen in Congress and ended in a general love feast.

The delegates at large for the State are: James B. McCreary, Ollie M. James, Justus Goebel, J. C. Mayo, J. C. W. Beckham, A. O. Stanley, Allie W. Young and Ben Johnson.

The Ninth district elected the following:

Delegates—Proctor Malyin, Boyd county, and J. N. Kehoe, Mason county.

Elector—J. W. Riley, Rowan county.

Assistant Elector—A. A. Stammer, Wolfe county.

Vice President of Convention—A. W. Bryon, Bracken county.

Memorials Committee—C. C. Wilson, Greenup county.

Member Resolutions Committee—H. B. Kinsolving, Montgomery county.

Member Permanent Organization Committee—M. M. Redwine, Elliott county.

Member State Central Committee—William A. Young, Rowan county.

Member State Executive Committee—William L. Bramblett, Nicholas county.

John C. C. Mayo was elected National Democratic Committeeman for Kentucky, defeating Urey Woodson, present committeeman.

A Forecast

We have now approached near enough to the republican national convention to forecast the action of that body. Ex-President Roosevelt will, apparently have a majority of the northern states, while President Taft seems likely to have a majority of the convention including the southern delegates, who represent merely patronage and boodle. Mr. Roosevelt has been careful to arrange for contesting delegates from the south, this was the first indication of his intention to bolt. With a majority of the northern delegates he is in position to have a convention of his own in case his contesting delegates are refused admission.

The conclusion, therefore, is that Mr. Roosevelt will be the nemesis of the regular convention or the nominee of a bolting convention. Get ready for the candidacy—he is quiet, sure to run.

Can Roosevelt be defeated? Yes, by any good progressive.

A progressive will hold the democratic vote and the republicans who oppose a third term will do the rest. Mr. Clark and Mr. Wilson are the leading progressive candidates—either one of them can defeat Roosevelt. The country will never have a President for a third term.—Commoner.

Mrs. John Douglas, a poultry raiser of Nabob, had a turkey hen to siten and die a few days ago. Sometime later she missed a fine gobbler, and after a long search found the gobbler sitting on a nest of eggs, where the hen had been sitting. The gobbler is so faithful he rarely ever comes off the nest for nourishment, and when he does he returns just as soon as he has eaten.

"I'm tired of laying," complained the hen. "And I'm tired of being about them," chimed in the rooster.

Willis Carter, who has been at work in Illinois for several weeks, has returned home.

Miss Cata Maxey is visiting at Wrigley this week.

Roosevelt and Wilson

Win in New Jersey.

Theodore Roosevelt won over President Taft in the primary election in New Jersey Tuesday, by about 10,000 majority, getting all the 24 district delegates and the 4 delegates at large from the State. Governor Woodrow Wilson won out in his own State against strong opposition, electing 21 out of the 28 from the state.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow, it strayed away one day where lambs should never go. And Mary sat her quickly down and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found the lamb because she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John, who kept a village store; he sat him down and smoked a pipe, and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy, John still sat and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the sheriff closed him out, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. How is it sister, can you tell, why other merchants here sell all their goods so readily and thrive from year to year? Remembering her own bad luck the little maid replies: "These other fellows get there John, because they advertise.—Hazel Green Herald (but stolen by it, no doubt.)

The seven day preceding and the seven days following the winter solstice were called by the ancients "halcyon days." This phrase is derived from a fable which set forth that Halcyon, a princess who grieved so deeply for the loss at sea of her spouse, was sent thither in pity in the form of a halcyon bird or fisher. According to the legend halcyon birds had during the time of breeding the power of lulling the waves, and it was believed at this the sea was always calm and might be navigated with perfect security. Experience, of course, dispelled this tale; but like many another old world story it has left behind it a distorted meaning. In this case the connection between the old and new significance is clear, for the term once expressive of peace and calm upon the waters, is equally expressive of tranquillity upon the sea of life.—Masonic Home Journal.

Yet it is in the power of President Taft and Col. Roosevelt, acting with general Republicans removed from the savage sectional strife. If they will not do this—if it must be either Mr. Taft or Mr. Roosevelt at the head of the Republican ticket, then the factional carnage will continue to the very night of election, with increasing wreck and ruin scattered every foot of the way from the Chicago nomination to the national ballot box.—New York Press.

The late Thomas B. Reed, when a lad, was requested to bail out a small boat that had been leaking badly, and was almost full of water.

"I can't do it," replied Tom.

"It's unconstitutional."

"What do you mean?" inquired the owner of the boat.

"The constitution of the United States says," replied the future statesman, "that excessive bail shall not be required of any man"—Youth's Companion.

In a statement issued Wednesday by National Manager F. T. Dubois, of Clarks headquarters, he declared that the nomination of a dark horse by the Democrats at Baltimore convention was an impossibility. Mr. Dubois expressed the opinion that while Speaker Clark may not be nominated on the first ballot, he would eventually get the nomination.

Contry Atty., J. P. Haney, was at Caney and Cannel City on legal business last week.

Willis Carter, who has been at work in Illinois for several weeks, has returned home.

Miss Cata Maxey is visiting at Wrigley this week.

Hogallow News.

A day or so ago a girl was heard to say that she wanted a certain kind of shirt waist pattern for the reason that it made her stick out more.

Sam Flinders continues to linger around the store at Rye Straw waiting for some stranger to come along and buy some oysters in order that he can get the empty can to keep his fishing worms in.

Rat Barlow tried out his new stand-up collar Sunday morning and was forced to abandon the idea of wearing it through the day, as he could not swallow good with it on.

Frisby Hancock's mule had a close shave from being run over by his buggy Wednesday afternoon. The animal was forced to travel at a break neck gallop down a long hill to keep out of the way of the buggy, which was running at a high speed at his heels.—Hogallow Kentuckian.

$8,045 IN PRIZES!

OFFERED BY

The Lexington Herald

In Big Circulation Contest Open to the People of Central and Eastern Kentucky

Three automobiles and thirty-six other prizes will be given to those who receive the most votes in the contest is just inaugurated. Votes are obtained by clipping daily ballots from The Herald and by securing prepaid subscriptions.

All of the prizes, except the automobiles, will be awarded by districts, into which The Herald's field has been divided, thus equalizing the competition and giving every one who enters an equal opportunity to win a prize.

SUMMARY OF PRIZES.

One Rambler Cross Country Touring Car	$1,815
One Overland, Model 60-T, Touring Car	1,255
One Hupmobile Touring Car	950
One Colby Player Piano	475
Six Columbia Grotinolas	1,300
Six $100 Diamonds	600
Six $75 Bank Accounts	450
Six $75 Furniture Credits	450
Six $75 Scholarship	450
Six $50 Merchandise Credits	300
Grand Total of 30 Prizes	8,145

Enter the big contest as the representative of your town or county. Man or woman, boy or girl may compete. It costs nothing to enter and nothing to win. Send your name and address today, on the coupon below.

Contest Dep't, Lexington Herald Co., Inc.
LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

Herald Contest Department, P. O. Box 427, Lexington, Ky.

I desire to enter your contest and will be pleased to have you send me full particulars and receipt book. It is understood that this coupon is to count 1,000 votes for me in case my nomination is accepted.

Name _____

LICKING VALLEY COURIER

Entered as second class matter April 7, 1910, at the post-office at West Liberty, Ky., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Issued Thursdays by The Morgan County Publishing Co. Incorporated.

TERMS—One Dollar a year in advance

H. G. COTTLE, EDITOR.

All communications should be addressed to the Editor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce W. J. FIELDS, of Carter county, as a candidate for the nomination for Congress from the 9th district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce G. V. LYKINS, of Grassy Creek, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Judge of Morgan county.

We are authorized to announce ALEX WHITAKER, of Caney, as a candidate for the nomination for County Judge of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce FRANK KENNAIRD, of Logville, as a candidate for the nomination for County Attorney of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce H. M. DAVIS, of West Liberty, as a candidate for the nomination for County Court Clerk of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce REN F. NICKELL, of West Liberty, as a candidate for Clerk of the Morgan County Court, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce JAMES W. DAVIS, of West, as a candidate for the nomination for Superintendent of Schools of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce C. E. CLARK, of Maytown, as a candidate for the nomination for Superintendent of Schools of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce L. A. LYKINS, of Index, as a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce SAM R. LYKINS, of Caney, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Morgan county.

We are authorized to announce W. W. MCCLURE, of West Liberty, as a candidate for the nomination for Jailer of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce E. J. WEBB, of Blair's Mill, as a candidate for the nomination for Jailer of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce J. H. ROE, of Grassy Creek, as a candidate for the nomination for Jailer of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce LEE BARKER, of Malone, as a candidate for the nomination for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce S. S. OLDFIELD, of Index, as a candidate for the nomination for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

GIVE THE MOUNTAINS A CHANCE

JUDGE A. J. KIRK FOR APPELLATE JUDGE

Judge Andrew J. Kirk, of Paintsville, Johnson County, Kentucky is a candidate for Judge of the Appellate Court from this the Seventh Appellate District. He has served two terms as Circuit Judge of the Twenty-fourth Judicial District, being elected the last time without opposition from either Republicans or Democrats. He is seldom reversed in the Court of Appeals and has made a record to be proud of as Circuit Judge. He is well qualified to fill this office, is the logical candidate at this time, is a deserving Republican, and is a mountain man.

This office has been held by a Montgomery County man for the past forty-six years. It is time the mountain people were given some representation. Friends of Judge Kirk over the district are confident he will win, and he is becoming more popular each day.

The Primary election will be held on Saturday August 3rd. Let every Republican in the county go to the polls and help Judge Kirk, a mountain man, and the son of an old soldier, win the nomination.

We are authorized to announce JOHN PATRICK, (Assessor John) of Grassy Creek, as a candidate for the nomination for Assessor of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce REV. W. H. LINDON of Insko, as a candidate for the nomination for Assessor of Morgan county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce GEO. W. STACY, of Grassy Creek, as a candidate for the nomination for JAILER of Morgan County, subject to the action of the Democrat party.

A DESERVING DEMOCRAT.

We understand there is considerable pressure being brought to bear upon our friend and fellow Democrat, Chas. D. Arnett, to enter the race for the nomination for Senator for the 34th district of Kentucky. It were well to bear in mind, while casting about for a senatorial candidate, that this district is not very largely democratic. That when the present incumbent, Hon. E. E. Hogg, in the last election over A. H. Patton, the district was thought to be doubtful or republican by a small majority. That in the senatorial race preceding a Republican was elected over a Democrat. Bearing these things in mind it behoves the party to act wisely and conservatively in the selection of a standard bearer who is to lead us in the fight for control of the district at the next senatorial election. We would act very foolishly if we surrendered the advantage which is ours, made a mistake in the selection of a party nominee at the next primary election.

Charley Arnett was born and reared in an adjacent county to Morgan. He is a Democrat and a member of a democratic family. He has been a resident of this county for several years, and since living here he has ever taken and active interest in politics and been prominently identified with the interests of his party. He has given unstintingly of his time and means in the furtherance of democratic principles, and his party or its nominees have never called him in vain. Qualified by education and experience, acquainted with needs of the people of the district, honest and fearless in the discharge of duty, he would, if nominated and elected, do honor to his party and reflect credit upon his people.

If I were Doc Wiley I'd go a-gunning for every blarsted editor in the country who persisted in writing about my baby.

Seriously, isn't it tiresome to read all this tommyrot in the daily press, about the Wiley kid?

The temperature took a tumble of several degrees just about the time the State convention was organized at Louisville. Wonder if the cooling off of the politicians had anything to do with it?

The man who has nothing but his illustrious ancestry to boast of is like the potato. All the good belonging to him is under the ground.

Smiles, like ether, permeate the entire universe.

The worst mistakes are usually made on purpose.

It takes a strained friendship a long time to recover.

Has "The cup of cold water in charity given" become a nonentity?

The man who looks for the bad in others sees only his reflected image.

The worst curses and imprecations are those which are never spoken audibly.

If you would set yourself right with God first get yourself right with your fellow man.

Practical politics has chased patriotism to a hole and practical politicians are hell bent on keeping it there.

If it should be Debs and Bryan and Roosevelt we would have a lively gab-fest till after the November election.

If Roosevelt should be elected president this fall old Atlas would have to look out for another job after March 4th 1917.

Remove all restraint from many so called good men and the world will thenceforth know them only as the worst of the bad.

When I hear some people say; "Of course we don't associate with so and so or such and such," I am convinced that ipecac, as a popular emetic, is gradually passing into disuse.

Don't trust Providence to do too much for you. If the job looks tough you had better screw up your courage and tackle it yourself. That Providence game has been overworked anyhow.

GUMPTION

Which is Common Sense without Educational Furbelows.

By L. T. HOVERMALE.

That Dog Dinner.

Recently some of the "ladies" of New York's "Four Hundred" gave a dinner for their poodle dogs that cost several thousand dollars. My heartiest sympathy and earnest commiseration goes out to the dogs on account of their forced association with such she-males. The poodle is accounted an intelligent canine, and it must be hard, extremely hard, on them to be compelled to associate with such brainless, purposeless travesties on woman.

What must be the lot of the husbands of these creatures it's hard to imagine, though I've heard that most of them seek refuge in "affinities." But in regard to the poodles, I earnestly call the attention of President George T. Angell to the case and insist that it merits the intervention of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

But beyond the foolishness of these petted, painted parvenues is the effect that these things have upon the general unrest of the country. The idle rich, who live in luxury from the unpaid toil of labor, have sins enough to answer for without flaunting their wealth in the face of poverty.

Already the toiling millions are muttering their discontent, and the wisest heads and the most devoted hearts are trying to solve these problems in a way that means peace. Yet the brainless acts of a few damned fool men or "damnedner" fool women may be the match that starts the fires of a bloody revolution.

The time has come when we can not ignore such things. It is not a time when the idle rich in safety taunt the toiler with his poverty. The grinning optimist who sees naught of the seething hell of discontent, that permeates the laboring class, at the unjust oppression should take another look. In the city where this "dog dinner" was pulled off thousands of babies were dying from the lack of nourishing food; thousands of willing men were begging to be allowed to work; in the squalid tenements of that city, where less than four percent of the people own their homes, multiplied thousands are crowded in health-destroying conditions in the effort to bring the cost of living within the limits of their earnings, and amidst this, and more, these heartless beneficiaries of unearned increment wrung from suffering labor, lavish thousands upon a dinner for dogs!

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

When he realizes that he must look to the ballot for relief, and exercises it intelligently, he will get his rights. True patriots are seeking to enlighten the laborer, but the ultra-rich seem determined to goad them to desperation.

The man who shouts that the laborer ought to get out and seek better wages is a fool, or worse, a knave. Even organized labor is powerless to combat the conspiracy of wealth. Let it strike for a living wage and capital imports foreign labor.

If the strikers seek to win the imported laborers to their cause a Federal Judge stops them with an injunction and puts in prison those who dare to criticize. No, the laborer is powerless now.

Ohio &amp; Kentucky Ry.

EXCURSION!

Get Ready

for the

Big Excursion

To Lexington, June 8th.

Big Aviation Meeting!

All kinds of Flying Machines!

$2 Round Trip from $2

all stations.

Special train will leave Licking River at 6 o'clock, a. m.

S. M. FRESE, 101-4

G. P. A.

THE KENTUCKY MOUNTANEER

A Republican Weekly,

Published at Salyersville, Ky.

Gives the News

From all parts of the country

$1.00 a year. 10c a month.

S. S. ELAM,

Owner and Editor.

Too Bad.

Many a good deed has been spoiled by being done at the wrong time.

You Have Inherited a Large Fortune!

It is contained in a

Life Insurance Policy

The Insurance business is comparatively new to Eastern Kentucky. People, as a rule, have not had the time or opportunity of learning what constitutes good insurance.

We believe that you would like to know more about the business—It's honest, sane, business-like and instructive.

Write or call on us at once—To-day!

Don't put it off until it is too late!

Delays are dangerous!

S. J. YOUNG.

J. E. STIVERS.

YOUNG & STIVERS,
Real Estate & Insurance,

Jackson, Ky.

"You don't have to die to win."

Sheriff's Sale for Taxes.

By virtue of the taxes due the State and county (which taxes having been paid by me and the money is now due to me individually) for the years 1910-11, I will, at the Court House door, in West Liberty, Ky., on MONDAY, JUNE 10, 1912, (it being County Court day) expose for sale the following real estate to satisfy said taxes:

(1910) Lando Craft, land; land, poll and dog tax $ 4.40

MY LADY OF DOUBT

BY RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "Love Under Fire," "My Lady of the North."

Illustrations by HENRY THIEDE

COPYRIGHT, ACT, C. L. CO., 1911

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Major Lawrence, son of John Lawrence of Virginia, whose wife was a Lady, is sent on a secret mission to Gen. Washington, just after the winter at Valley Forge.

CHAPTER II.—Disguised in a British uniform arrives within the enemy's lines.

CHAPTER III.—The Major attends a great fete and saves the "Lady of the Blended Rose" from mob. He later meets the girl at a brilliant ball.

CHAPTER IV.—Trouble is started over a waltz, and Lawrence is urged by his partner, Mistress Mortimer, (the Lady of the Blended Rose), to make his escape.

CHAPTER V.—Lawrence is detected as a spy by Captain Grant of the British army, who agrees to a duel.

CHAPTER VI.—The duel is stopped by Grant's friends and the spy makes a dash for life, swimming a river following a narrow escape.

CHAPTER VII.—The Major arrives at the shop of a blacksmith, who is friendly, and knows the Lady of the Blended Rose.

CHAPTER VIII.—Captain Grant and rangers arrive and search the blacksmith shop in vain for the spy.

CHAPTER IX.—Lawrence joins the rangers who capture Grant and his train.

It was an hour or more after dark when our compact little body of horsemen rode down a gully into a broad creek bottom, and then advanced through a fringe of trees to the edge of the stream. There was a young moon in the sky yielding a spectral light, barely making those faces nearest me visible. At the summit of the clay bank, shadowed by the forest growth encircling them, were the others who had gathered at this war rendezvous, the majority dismounted, holding their horses in readiness for action. As we rode in among them neighbors clasped hands silently, but the words exchanged were few. Farrell forced his horse through the press toward us, a tall figure sat stiff in the saddle, and my own horse followed unguided.

"A goodly turn-out, Duval," he commented briefly. "What was the number before we came?"

"Forty-seven rifles," the Lieutenant's voice nasal, and high-pitched. "The men from Overland and Springdale are not in yet. How many arrived with you?"

"Twenty; ample for our purpose, even if the others fall us. This is Major Lawrence of the Maryland Line."

I shook his long, thin hand, marking the iron grip of the fingers.

"We'll introduce you to some typical Jersey fighting tonight, Major," he said genially. "We have a style all our own."

"I had supposed I had witnessed all styles."

"We'll see; the difference is that every man among us has some outrage to revenge. Our quarrel is a personal one against thieves and murderers. What is the program, Farrell?"

"To intercept Delavan's raiders. They will be along the main road within the hour from all reports. He has a wagon train loaded with stuff gathered up between Medford and Mount Holly, together with a considerable drove of cattle and some horses."

"And what force?"

"About fifty men originally, but reinforced this afternoon with as many more to help guard the train into Philadelphia."

"Mounted?"

"The reinforcements were, but the original foragers were afoot; they were Hessians; the others Grant's company of Queen's Rangers."

"Glory be to God!" exclaimed a voice near at hand. "Did ye hear that, lads? It's Dutchmen and Tories we're against tonight. Be Gory! I wouldn't have missed the chance of this shiny for the best farm in Camden."

There was a low growl from the cluster of men, and an ominous movement of bodies pressing closer. Duval laughed mirthlessly.

"The bloodhounds takes the scent," he said grimly. "God help those poor devils when we cut the least, Farrell. Where do you propose meeting them?"

"Across there in the bluffs," pointing, "where the roads turns in between the high clay banks. We'll leave our horses here, an' cross on foot. Is that the right plan, boys?"

There was a murmur of acquiescence, a few questions, and then the silence of approval. It was evident these minute men were under small discipline, and their officers led only by force of character. Without orders the horses were led away, tied securely in the black depths of the woods, and the men came straggling back, rifles in hand, grouping themselves along the edge of the stream. There was no attempt at military formation, but Duval straightened them out so as to count the number present.

"Sixty-nine, all told," he announced briefly. "All right, boys, come on, and keep your powder out of the water."

It was firm bottom, but the water above the waist, with sufficient at so we had to brace against it.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform. Those in advance rode slowly, four abreast, down into the black shadows, lolling in their saddles, voices murmur, seemingly unconscious of any danger. It was easy to comprehend their state of mind. Delavan had been left alone for a week, permitted to the countryside unmolested, and his command had naturally carelessly, never suspecting their presence, been watched by

Now, guarded by

the country side.

dropping but upon the clay, his feet

revealing men and horses so distinctly I could even guess at their uniform

Correspondence

DINGUS

M. F. Conley has been sick the past week.

Mrs. Allie Dawson, of Flores, visited her sister, Mrs. Paulina Williams, Saturday night.

Born to the wife of Noah Williams, a boy.

Scott Johnson, West Liberty, and Miss Rebecca Conley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Sunday by Elder R. H. Ferguson.

French Helton was here buying cattle last week.

The mercantile firm of E. D. Bradley and son, will henceforth be styled Bradley and Blevens, Mr. Bradley having sold his interest to Squire A. F. Blevens.

Titus C. Fraley has moved on his brothers farm on Laurel branch.

Emerson Ferguson, of the Popular Plains, recently made a short visit here.

Albert Hutchinson, of Crockett, the photographer, was here the first of the week.

Monday, June 3rd, a peculiar wedding took place, Manford Baily and Miss Maggie Day were married in a carriage at R. H. Ferguson's. No one except Mr. Ferguson's family was present, and as a matter of fact no one objected. The groom is a son of T. H. Bailey, the bride is a daughter of Albert Day. They are of respectable parentage, and we bespeak for them a happy and prosperous future. The untried knot was tied by Rev. Ferguson.

SLAB.

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so. "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley's Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and they saved me a big doctor bill."

For weak back, backache, rheumatism, urinary and kidney troubles use Foley's Kidney Pills. They help quickly. For sale by all dealers.

GRASSY CREEK

Most of the people of the country have finished up their corn planting notwithstanding continuous rain. Oat crops, meadows, Irish potatoes and pastures are excellent, why should we murmur?

Mrs. A. B. McKinney and W. A. Testerman, of Morehead, attended decoration at Grassy Lick, 30 ult. Elder F. H. Hamilton, of Johnson county, attended the decoration at Grassy Lick being requested in the funeral of Elder H. W. Barker. Quite a number of the friends and relations on the occasion, viz: Eld. J. C. Barker, wife and son, of Still Water, W. B. Barker, of Omer, Mrs. W. P. Henry, of Henry, and a host of near by relatives were present and we had quite an enjoyable meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Carter, who has been making his home in Illinois has recently returned. W. M. Henry and wife, of Blackwater, are visiting J. D. Henry and family of Grassy Creek. A man needs a good team to haul more than an empty wagon. Judge, spear up the overseers. It looks like Clark and Roosevelt are having things their way. Roosevelt may have things his way, in June, but we will have them our way in November.

FAIR PLAY.

Charles Sable, 30 Cook St., Rochester, N. Y., says he recommends Foley's Kidney Pills at every opportunity because they gave him prompt relief from a bad case of kidney trouble that had long bothered him. Such a recommendation, coming from Mr. Sable, is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills.

The genuine Foley Kidney Pills are never sold in bulk, but put up in sealed bottles, enclosed in a yellow carton. Ask for Foley Kidney Pills. Refuse substitutes. For sale by all Dealers.

We are prepared to furnish any and all kinds of cards and hand bills advertising horses, bulls or jacks. Give us a call and examine our work.

A Card.

This is to certify that Foley's Horey and Tar Compound does not contain any opiates, any habit-forming drugs, or any ingredients that could possibly harm its users. On the contrary, its great healing and soothing qualities make it a real remedy for coughs, colds and irritations of the throat, chest and lungs. H. L. Blomquist, Esdaile, Vis., says his wife considers Foley's Horey and Tar Compound the best cough cure on the market. She has tried various kinds but Foley's gives the best result of all.

The genuine is in a yellow package. Ask for Foley's Horey and Tar Compound and accept no substitute. For Sale by all Dealers.

There are some husbands who are such poor providers that they can not furnish even an excuse.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strength the ligament and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers.

$25.00 Reward

The above reward will be paid to any person who will arrest Ott Hunt and deliver him to the jailer of Morgan county, Ky. This reward will be good until the first day of June term of Morgan Circuit Court.

June 1st, 1912.

H. B. BROWN,
Sheriff Morgan County.

When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as may be required. This remedy will also liquify the tough mucus and make it easier to expectorate. It has been used successfully in many epidemics and is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

Public Notice.

Know All Men By These Presents: That the firm of Oakley & Lykins, which has formerly been doing a general merchandise business at West Liberty, has been dissolved by mutual agreement, and all concerned shall take notice of same and act accordingly.

Respectfully,
R. M. Oakley,
One of firm.
tf.

$100 Reward $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing the work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.

HAS BECOME MATTER OF JEST

Woman's Promise to "Obey" Husband, in Marriage Service, Perfumery and Without Meaning.

With the advent of the female suffrage movement (the teaching of which cut may, when the movement gets somewhat stronger, be introduced into the common school system of the country) the word "obey" in the ordinary marriage service, already in favor with the leaders of the movement, will be shaken out of the prayer book to be heard no more on sea or shore. As it is now the scant recognition this word receives after the wedding service is over is entirely perfumery. James Douglas in London Opinion—in England the revolt against the word "obey" has already reached formidable proportions—says that the use and abuse of the word is continual and unblushing perjury in the courts of heaven—where marriages are made. To this he adds: "And nobody worries over it. It is taken for granted. Archdeacons wink at it, bishops chide over it, deans crack jokes over it. And with good reason, for their own wives break the vow of obedience as gaily as the wives of laymen. Is there one clergyman who will venture to proclaim from the pulpit that his wife invariably and unconditionally obeys him all the year round? We know there is not. How, then, can the clergy expect from laywomen what they dare not expect from their own helpmates? As a rule, the vicar's wife is a masterful dame, and it is well known that difference is a badge of the cloth. Probably there are more henepecked husbands in orders than out of them. The traditional curate is a mild and timid being, who is born to obey."

HOW MOUNTAINS WERE NAMED

Interesting to Trace Derivation of the Famous Ranges of This Country.

Adirondacks: Derived from the Canicaga (Mohawk) Iroquois language, in which the original form is ratron-taks, meaning "dark eaters."

Allegheny: A corruption of the Delaware Indian name for Allegheny and Ohio rivers, the meaning of the name being lost.

Appalachian: The name was given by the Spaniards under DeSoto, who derived it from the name of a neighboring tribe, the Apalach. Brinton holds its radical to be the Muscogee apala, "great sea," or "great ocean," and that apalache is a compound of this word with the Muscogee personal particle "ehi," and means "those by the sea."

Blue Ridge: So called from the hue which frequently envelops its distant summits.

Catskill: The mountains were called katabers by the Dutch, from the number of wildcats found in them, and the creek, which flows from the mountains, was called Katerskill, "tomcats' creek."

Ozark: The aux area was said to refer to the bends in White river, and was applied to the Ozark mountains, through which the river pursues a wandering course—in other words, to the mountains at the bends of the river.

Sierra Nevada: A Spanish term signifying "snow-clad range."—Geological Survey.

Surely Professional. It was well known that the late Dr. P. H. Brascome, though he demanded and got large fees from his wealthy clients, gave much of his valuable time to treating poor patients, says the New York Herald. One case of a laboring man came under his notice, and he not only treated the man, visiting him every day and providing the necessary medicines free, but he managed also to see to it that the laborer's family did not suffer for food while the man was ill.

When the man got well again and went to work he sent out of his meager wages a grateful letter and enclosed a two dollar bill, which Dr. Brascome, rather than offend the grateful man by returning, put into his pocket.

One of his colleagues happened to be present at the time and started to reproach him for being so "unprofessional" as to accept so small a fee.

"Why," said Dr. Brascome, "I took all the poor devil had. I guess that was professional enough."

The Circus Auctioneer. An auctioneer who had grown gray in the work had been urged repeatedly to retire.

"Not till I get a chance to auction off a circus," he said. "That's the height of my ambition. It is the point every good auctioneer works for. Not many attain it, because there are not enough circuses to go around, but so long as a man wields the hammer he clings to the hope of getting a fling at a circus some day. I can't explain the fascination.

Men who have sold circuses at auction tell me that it requires no more ability to sell lions and elephants than bonbon dishes. Maybe they are right, but circus managers must think otherwise, for of all the people who have goods to dispose of at auction the circus man is most particular about the qualifications and experience of his auctioneer.

Main Stand-By. Mrs. Gramercy—if you have to economize I suppose you'll proceed to give up the motor car?

Gramercy—I should say not. We'll have to do it in some way that our neighbors can't see—Puck.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

There is no real need of anyone being troubled with constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

Calling, business and professional cards at this office.

HANNA'S LUSTRO FINISH

The Wife or Husband who takes pride in the beauty of the home can work wonders with

"HANNA'S LUSTRO FINISH"

"The Made To Walk on Kind"

Old floors can be refinished in Mahogany, Antique Oak or any color no matter what surface you have, if you work according to directions, which are simple and easily followed.

"HANNA'S LUSTRO FINISH" is also used on all kinds of Furniture and Woodwork in the home. This Finish does not fade and is absolutely durable, and on this you may depend. Many of the ladies derive pleasure in this work of beautifying their homes. WHY DON'T YOU?"

FOR SALE BY

Oakley & Lykins.

GROCERIES

And Plenty of Them.

Cheap at the price and The Prices Cheap

Line Complete

Ice Cream Soda,

Prompt and efficient service

Come once and you'll come again

HENRY COLE

Salyers Building Main Street

Marshals Sale for Taxes.

By virtue of the taxes due the West Liberty Graded School District for the year 1911, I will on June 10, 1912.

exposed to Public Sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, viz: all the unsold lots in the Old town addition to the town of West Liberty lying between Princeton street and the Long branch, Morgan County Ky. Leved on as to the property of Bowman Realty Co., to satisfy their taxes for the year 1911. The sale will take place at court house door about 10 o'clock A. M.

Amount of Tax $90.00.
J. M. KENNARD, Col.

For Sale

One Saw Mill, located at the mouth of Elk Fork. 20 horse power Huber Engine and double GARR-SCOTT mill. For further particulars call on or write

E. L. CAHILL,
102-6t.
West Liberty, Ky.

Caleb Junior Joe Hatten

Will make the season of 1912 at $10 ($6.00) to DOLLARS insure a living colt. The season will be made at John Carter's stable, West Liberty Ky., on Friday and Saturday of each week, the remainder of the time at my stable at Elam, Ky.

Care will be taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

W. T. ELAM,
Elam, Ky.

Wanted

We are still short the following numbers of the COURIER: 6, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 22 and 24. Any one who will send or bring us these numbers will be suitably rewarded.

A sprained ankle may as a rule be cured in three to four days by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers.

Hookworm Needed Also.

"See that measuring worm crawling up my skirt?" cried Mrs. Bjens. "That's a sign I'm going to have a new dress." "Well, let him make it for you," growled Mr. Bjens. "And while he's about it, have him send a hookworm to do you up the back I'm tired of the job."

Apply to COURIER Office.

Two finely bred English Setter pups 10 months old—field broken

by Jim Dennis.

Call, business and professional cards at this office.

Calling, business and